FESTIVAL
11.-17. OKTOBER 2024 IN BERLIN

Bounced [Abgeprallt / Springen lassen] (3-6)

Performance für Kinder von 3-6 Jahren

Magnet Theatre | Südafrika

Content description

Duration

- 35 minutes + 5 minutes audience interaction

Language and text

- Nonverbal
- Songs are performed live (translation is not required, not relevant for understanding the performance)
- No written

Stage design, Props

- Round, light-colored dance floor with adhesive tape strips in red, yellow, grey, blue and green
- A larger gray box and a smaller one, both also covered with colorful adhesive tape, are placed behind the dance floor
- Different sized rubber balls are used for the performance

Sensorial stimuli/triggers

Light

- General warm lighting throughout the performance without major changes
- No blackouts

Sound

- The actors sing various songs live together several times

Other effects

- At one point, a ball is thrown onto the stage from the audience. This is a surprising moment.

Audience area and movement

- The audience only sits in front of the stage area
- Wheelchair spaces can be made available in Podewil (please register in advance). The Nachbarschaftshaus am Körnerpark is not barrier-free as it is only accessible via a staircase.
- It is possible to leave the room and return at any time

Atmosphere and Content

- The performance is an energetic and playful production that explores the themes of exclusion, bullying and 'othering'.
- The play gently works its way delicately to a point of understanding that pleasure shared is always pleasure doubled.
- The production works with humor, music and dance.
